Case No. 19-34411-pcm13

11 CAROLE MARY DECOURCEY, )

MOTION TO VACATE ORDER

GRANTING RELIEF FROM STAY

13 _____ Debtor. )

14 Debtor, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9024, Federal Rule of 15 Civil Procedure 60(b), and applicable decisional law, moves for 16 an order vacating this Court's prior Order of February 14, 2022, 17 which granted U.S. Bank Trust National Association, et al.
18 (hereafter "Lender") relief from the automatic stay.

19 BACKGROUND AND MATERIAL FACTS

20 Debtor filed this Chapter 13 case on December 2, 2019. At 21 the time she filed the case, Debtor was in arrears on her 22 mortgage in the approximate amount of $226,878. Being unable to 23 cure these arrears through Plan payments, a provision was 24 included in the debtor's Plan to sell or refinance her residence no later than January 31, 2023, and pay all secured creditors in 1 full from the sales proceeds. In addition, the Order Confirming 2 Plan added a provision to the Plan that, upon the filing with 3 the Court of a Statement of Failure to Comply, the Lender would 4 be granted relief from stay as to the debtor's residence should 5 Debtor fail to make post-petition mortgage payments after a 6 thirty-day notice to Debtor and Debtor's attorney with an 7 opportunity to cure.

8 On or about January 3, 2022, Debtor's attorney received a 9 notice of default dated December 30, 2021, from the Lender's
10 attorney, ZBS Law, LLP. (See attached Exhibit A.) This notice
11 stated that the debtor was in arrears $10,221.33 in post-filing 12 mortgage payments. The notice gave the Debtor ten days from the 13 date of the notice to cure the default. Despite being listed on 14 the notice as having been copied on the letter, the debtor never 15 received this notice in the mail.

16 On January 4, 2022, Debtor's attorney emailed the managing 17 attorney of ZBS Law, LLP informing her that the deadline to cure
18 given in the notice of default did not follow the Plan provision 19 added by the Order Confirming Plan. Debtor's attorney requested 20 that Lender's attorney issue a new Notice. Debtor's attorney 21 also inquired of Lender's attorney in the same email whether 22 Lender would be willing to allow Debtor to cure the default by 23 adding the post-petition arrears into Debtor's Chapter 13 Plan.
24 Lender's attorney replied on January 4, 2022: "Yes, we should be able to issue a new notice. Let me look into it. I will ask about your settlement suggestion."

1 Not having received a new notice, Debtor's attorney emailed
2 Lender's attorney on January 11, 2022, asking Lender's attorney
3 to confirm that they would not be acting on the notice dated 4 December 30, 2021. Lender's attorney replied, "Correct. We have 5 sent out the corrected letter and that is the one we will be 6 acting on." A copy of the corrected notice was not provided.

7 January 12, 2022, Debtor's attorney emailed Lender's 8 attorney requesting a ledger for the account and asking for an 9 update regarding the proposed cure arrangement.

10 Neither the debtor nor the debtor's attorney received a new 11 notice of default in the mail from Lender's attorney's office.
12 Yet, on February 11, 2022, the firm representing Lender filed a 13 Declaration stating that a Notice of Default was mailed to 14 Debtor's attorney and to the Debtor on January 5, 2022.
15 February 14, 2022, the Court granted Lender relief from stay.

16 February 15, 2022, in an email to Lender's attorney, 17 Debtor's attorney stated that neither Debtor's attorney nor the 18 debtor had received a copy of the new notice that was attached 19 to the February 11, 2022 Declaration. As receiving mail from 20 ZBS Law, LLP had been a recurring issue, Debtor's attorney 21 requested that Lender's attorney vacate the Order Granting 22 Relief. Lender's attorney replied via email with a copy of the 23 notice that was purportedly sent on January 5, 2022 to Debtor
24 and Debtor's attorney. (See Exhibit B.) In addition, Lender's attorney indicated that Lender was not open to the proposed settlement of adding the post-petition default into Debtor's Plan, nor allowing for an additional monthly cure payment.

1 Lender's attorney also provided the ledger that was requested on 2 January 12, 2022. This was the first response regarding 3 Debtor's cure proposal.

4 Debtor was able to procure the funds to bring the post-
5 filing mortgage arrears current. Debtor has indicated to her 6 attorneys that, had she received the second notice of default 7 and had she known the deadline in which to cure, she would have 8 been able to make full payment by the deadline.

RELIEF SOUGHT

9 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) allows the Court to 10 relieve a party from a final order due to (among other reasons)
11 surprise, that the order is no longer equitable, and any other 12 reason that justifies relief. Debtor requests that the Court
13 vacate the Order entered February 14, 2022, which granted relief
14 from the automatic stay to Lender. The filing of the Statement 15 of Failure to Comply by Lender's attorney was a surprise to the 16 Debtor, in that neither the Debtor nor the Debtor's attorney had 17 received the revised notice of default letter, purported to be 18 sent on January 5, 2022. The Order is no longer equitable, in 19 that the Debtor has the funds to cure the post-filing arrears.
20 (See Exhibit C.) In addition, relief is justified in that the 21 property is Debtor's residence and is necessary for her 22 effective reorganization. An equity cushion exists in the 23 property to adequately protect Lender. Finally, Debtor will be 24 listing the property for sale this month, which is ten months before the sale/refinance deadline provided in the confirmed Plan.

1           WHEREFORE, Debtor requests that the Court issue an Order 2 vacating the Order granting relief to U.S. Bank Trust National 3 Association, et al. dated February 14, 2022.

5 Respectfully submitted this 12th day of March, 2022.

14 I, Megan Rickert, hereby declare as follows:

15 1.

16 I am an attorney at Todd Trierweiler & Associates and make 17 this Declaration in support of the Motion to Vacate Order
18 Granting Relief from Stay.

19 2.

20 I am familiar with the procedure for processing mail at our 21 office. All mail delivered comes to the desk of our 22 receptionist or, if our receptionist is out, to our office 23 manager. Each piece of mail is stamped "Received" once removed 24 from the envelope and then is scanned into our computer system.

1 Each scanned file is then linked to the appropriate client's
2 file and routed to the handling attorney for review.

3 3.

4 January 3, 2022, a notice of default pertaining to this 5 case dated December 30, 2021 and from ZBS Law, LLP was received
6 at our office and routed to me for review. After review, I
7 contacted the managing attorney at ZBS Law, LLP, Amber 8 Labrecque, regarding an improper cure deadline given in the 9 notice. Ms. Labrecque agreed to send a revised notice to our 10 office and to the debtor with the proper cure deadline.

11 4.

12 January 11, 2022, having not received a new notice, I 13 emailed Ms. Labrecque to confirm that ZBS Law, LLP would not be 14 acting on the previous notice dated December 30, 2021. Ms.
15 Labrecque indicated that a new notice had been sent out.

16 5.

17 January 12, 2022, I emailed Ms. Labrecque requesting a 18 ledger for the debtor's mortgage account to review the accuracy
19 of the claimed delinquency. I also inquired about cure 20 arrangements.

21 6.

22 Our office never received a revised notice of default.
